PARRIMAC

— We Will Remember . . .

A man who prefers to keep it simple strolled into the lime-light of Group A football with five state titles, twelve district titles, and twelve regional championships.

Coach Bob Williams took over the coaching duties at Parry McCluer in 1974 and has since built a program that is one of the most respected football programs in the state today.

With 198 wins, 53 losses and 4 ties, Williams was one of the most highly respected coaches in high school football. He is often regarded as a class act; honest, upfront and a true gentleman.

Mr. Williams has touched the lives of many young men and he will not soon be forgotten. Buena Vista will always remember Coach Bob Williams and his legacy will continue well into the future.

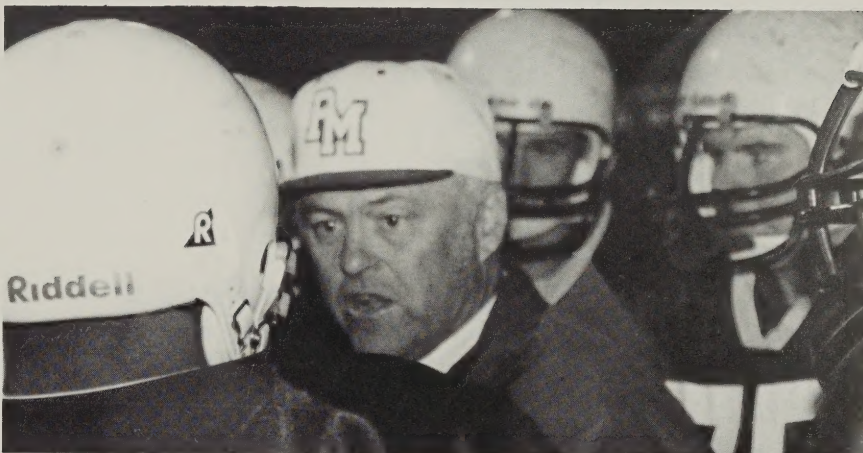

The 1994-95 yearbook is dedicated to Coach Bob Williams and his enduring legacy.

Two Steps Forward . . .

As the year goes by the classes look back at events and forward to the future. The freshmen look back at their first unsure year. The first pep rally, dance, new teachers and friends. The freshmen can look forward to a new and better year.

One Look Back

The Sophomores look back at a more familiar year. They weren't at the bottom, nor were they at the top. Things were easier and next they can look forward to the upperclass world.

Two Steps Forward . . .

The Juniors can now look back on their three experience-filled years. Their first year as an upperclassman has prepared them for their final reign as Seniors.

One Look Back

Seniors may now look back on their four long, hard years. Many things have come and gone. Now to look forward, Seniors take the first step into the adult world.

"The Road"

For the Class of 1995 the road has been long and hard, happy and sad. Memories remain through the good and the bad. Over the years times have changed. Friends have come and gone but feelings remain. Now the journey has come to an end. People leave and friends lose touch. The years go by and memories grow dim, but somewhere down the line the paths of our lives will cross again.

Iraqi leader Saddam Hussein orders his troops to the border of oil-rich Kuwait. The U.S. sends 350 warplanes to the area to support the Kuwaiti forces. By October 11, Hussein orders the withdrawal of most of his forces.

Russian President Boris Yeltsin calls out his poorly trained military to subdue a rebellion in Chechnya, a southern republic the size of Connecticut. Critics accuse Yeltsin of resorting to totalitarian methods of the old communist Soviet regime to keep the shaky Russian Federation unified.

Europe's worst flood in this century kills at least 30 people across Europe. Inland floods caused by melting Alpine snow and relentless rains hit Belgium, France, Germany, and the Netherlands, whose famous dike system begins to crumble late in January 1995 in the face of rampaging rivers. Dutch authorities evacuate 250,000 people from the lowlands.

Camilla Parker Bowles, allegedly Prince Charles' mistress, announces her divorce from her husband, Andrew Parker Bowles. Princess Diana is said to be negotiating a divorce from Charles, who will be free to remarry without giving up the throne—unless unhappy subjects force a referendum on the monarchy.

More than 900 passengers die, 140 are rescued when the Estonia, a 15,500-ton Baltic ferry sinks off the coast of Finland in a violent nighttime storm. The storm's 30-foot waves swamp the ship which lists and sinks in a matter of minutes.

Thousands of Cubans flee their economically depressed homeland, hoping for a better life in America. Many set off on homemade rafts and other small vessels only to be intercepted by the U.S. Coast Guard. The United States and Cuba reach an agreement in September that allows 20,000 Cuban immigrants to enter the United States each year.

In the wake of the 1994 Los Angeles earthquake and the southern California wildfires of 1993, California experiences more natural disasters in January 1995 when rainstorms cause flooding that kills 11 people and leaves 3,000 others homeless. Flooding is so high in Santa Barbara, fun-seeking teenagers dive off a freeway overpass into 15 feet of water. President Clinton declares 34 counties federal disaster areas.

In 1994, the U.S. registers a one-year population growth of 2.7 million. One-third of the increase is due to immigration, the largest such influx since 1914.

Author and humanities professor, Ralph Ellison, dies at age 80. His 1952 novel, Invisible Man, has been called the most powerful novel written about alienation, identity, and racism in America.

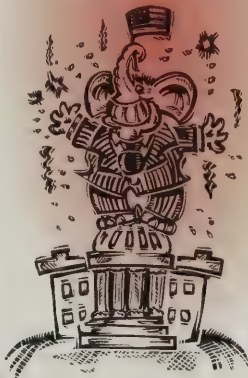

A huge increase in killings by 14- to 24-year-olds raises the nation's homicide rate, while violence blamed on preteens rocks communities nationwide. A boy, 13, is sentenced to life for strangling a four-year-old. In Chicago, an 11-year-old boy kills a 14-year-old girl and is then executed by his own gang. In Washington state a pair of 12-year-olds shoot a migrant worker.

The death of Jacqueline Kennedy Onassis in May 1994 marks the end of an era, a time when America was prosperous, fighting for civil rights, and heading for the moon. The former first lady is buried next to her husband, President John F. Kennedy, in Arlington National Cemetery, Washington, D.C.

After his villain in Shakespeare's Much Ado About Nothing and his title role in Bertolucci's Little Buddha, actor Keanu Reeves buffs up to play an action star in Speed, about a bomb and a runaway bus, one of the year's biggest box office hits.

With the first female starship captain, TV's "Star Trek: Voyager" is the newest offshoot of the enduring Star Trek phenomenon, after "Deep Space Nine," "The Next Generation," and this year's full-length feature Star Trek: Generations.

Lou Gehrig's last day, Sandy Koufax on the mound, and Jackie Robinson's arrival are all part of the Ken Burns film "Baseball," an 18 1/2-hour historical mini-series on PBS. "Baseball" touches on American issues of race, labor, immigration, the role of women, urban renewal, popular media, and the nature of heroes and mythology.

The 1994 edition of Fighting Blues football produced little excitement and took a slight detour from the winning ways of past Blues teams. In a season overshadowed by the retirement of head Coach Bob Williams, lack of experience, injuries, and plain bad luck heavily contributed to a record of only two wins and a dismal eight losses.

Given the opportunity to play at least half of the season this year, I can honestly say that if games were won on effort and desire to play, the Blues would be celebrating an undefeated season. This team deserves as much respect as previous Blues football teams and I was proud to be a part of it.

This year's Girls' J.V. Basketball team followed up last year's success with another great season. Under second-year Head Coach, John "Stretch" Armstrong, the girls finished with an impressive 14-6 record. Even with a relatively new squad, the Lady Blues kept the same competitive intensity of last season. Once again they swept the cross-country rivals for the second straight year.

This year's Cross Country team was trying to follow in the footsteps of last year's District champion team. This was a difficult task, considering that only two of last year's squad were returning. The team was able to field a full team, however most of the schools that they competed against were either bigger or had a larger squad. Although they only won one meet, they were able to finish second in the district tournament and were able to advance to the regional tournament. Unfortunately they were not able to place as a team since Mike McElroy was injured. However, they were able to compete individually. Damion Beverly placed 45th with a time of 19:52, Jobie Coleman placed 67th, Dean Ingram and Philip Wohlrab, placed 81st and 82nd respectively. Coach Preston Evans said that this group of guys always try their hardest and are truly dedicated despite a long and trialsome season and without a lot of recognition. Coach Evans also predicted, "We can win the District next year."

“Not having a full golf team for half of my high school golf career was kind of disappointing, but this was a great group of guys. I wouldn’t trade them for the world.”

— Kevin Pryor

Unlike other sports golf does not receive much of the glory. Long before the rest of us started thinking about school, the dedicated members of this young team were putting in long hours in the sweltering heat. By the time school started, half the season was gone. Despite the efforts of the squad, the outcomes were disappointing. However, this year the team showed signs of improvement by picking up its first win in two years. One member, Charles “Boo” Rowsey even advanced to the Region C Tournament. With only one senior on the team this year, the future seems good.

This year the Blues basketball team followed up last year's success with another impressive season. After losing all five starters from last year's State Runners-Up squad, the Blues had a new look. Led by tri-captains Mike McElroy, Brandon Garrett, and Ian Humphries, the team showed that last season's success was no fluke. After a red-hot start the team cooled off and finished off tied for fourth in the Pioneer District. However, they pulled together and came in second in the district tournament, earning a spot in the Regional tournament. With outstanding team play the Blues captured their second straight Region C crown and advanced once again to the State Semi-Finals, proving that Parry McCluer basketball is among the best in the state.

"I got it! I got it!"

The Lady Blues put together a pretty good season this year. We won 75% of our District matches. One of the highlights was beating Glenvar in their gym. One of our biggest disappointments was losing to Bath County in the District Tournament. We had twice beaten them during the regular season.

Even though we are losing five seniors this year, we feel that we will have a strong program next year with the six returning from this year's squad, and a fine selection of J.V. players.

Once again the wrestling team had another "rebuilding year." This year's team was made up of mostly underclassmen. The exceptions were co-captains, Tommy Coleman and Brian Marlatt. The team had an overall record of 3-4-1 and finished 3rd in the district. In the district tournament, two wrestlers, Tommy Coleman and Kevin Camp, captured 1st place. Joey Coleman, Brian Marlatt, and Matt Henson placed second in their respective classes. The team sent four wrestlers to the regional tournament, Tommy Coleman, Joey Coleman, Jeremiah Brockenbrough, and Kevin Camp. Brian Marlatt was not able to go to the regionals because of injury. Tommy Coleman was named the most valuable, Jeremiah Brockenbrough was named the most improved, Kevin Camp received the Coaches Award, and Joey Coleman received Sportsmanship.

This year's Varsity squad was coached for the first year by Mark Mace, a former assistant coach for RCHS. The team finished fifth in the district but suffered a disappointing loss to Craig County in the District Tournament. Despite a 4-13 mark at the end of the season, the team showed signs of improvement, especially defensively. Pitcher Jaime Hartless made the All-District team for the second straight year. Chase Clark said, "We were a lot better with our techniques and Coach Mace taught us about different situations. We were a better team than our record showed. We were inexperienced this year, we'll be a lot better next year."

The J.V. baseball team had a record of 5-13, a successful season compared to last year's no win season. After a slow start, the team picked up the slack during the second half of the season, finishing 2nd in the district.

The PM Softball team had a great season and almost made it to the Region C championships. In the regular season the team had 10 wins and 7 losses. The Blues advanced to the semifinals of the Pioneer tournament. They had a 15-9 win over Craig Co. in the first round. Next the team went up against James River with a 10-8 loss for Parry McCluer. It was a big disappointment losing to James River three times in one season but according to Coach Downs, it helped the PM Softball team "grow up a little bit."

This year's turnout for track and field was one of the largest in recent history at Parry McCluer. Including the j.v. squad, we started out this season with close to forty athletes. We hope to continue this upward trend, because my goal is to bring back the prominence that track enjoyed in the seventies and early eighties.

Our season was very successful — even though we placed fourth overall in the Pioneer district, we had ten boys and four girls go on to compete in the Region C meet. Four of our athletes, Michael Decker, D.J. Douglas, Ian Humphreys, and Brock Roberts, went on to compete in the Group A State track and field meet.

We are anxiously looking forward to next season. Even though we are losing five boys and two girls to graduation, we anticipate a large number of athletes to join next year's team.

Class Project

Throughout the year, there have been many projects done by certain classes at PMHS. The object of these class projects was to help the students learn in new and creative ways. Most of these were hands-on in which the students played the major role in the finished product. These opportunities allowed the students to gain practical experience.

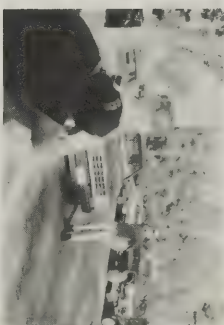

Here we have one of the projects done by a group in Mr. Crafts' Photography 1 class. This project required the students to create a short slide presentation that either showed a process or told a story. This one was generously donated by one of the groups. Here's a summary.

Crimes on the Street, opening credits

An undercover cop watches a drug deal from a distance

The cop tries to bust the dealers

One of the dealers is killed, and the other draws his gun and kills the cop

Two cops decide they will go undercover and avenge the death of their friend

The cops find the killer and try to make a deal

Then they try to make the bust

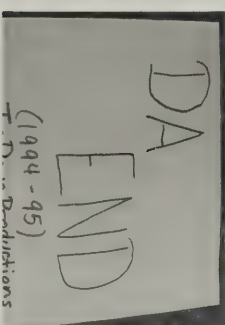

The druggie gets away but is pursued

Gunfire is exchanged.

The killer is apprehended.

A Meeting of Cultures

Many events occurred to make this school year special and memorable. One event, however, stands out from the rest. This was when Parry McCluer had the wonderful privilege of hosting nine Japanese students and their chaperons. The group arrived March 22, 1995 and stayed through March 31, 1995.

The Japanese students were from the small fishing village of Hizen Town. Many of these students had never been out of the country or off of the island. Three chaperons accompanied the students, two Japanese and a third who was a British assistant English teacher. The students, who ranged in age from fourteen to sixteen, had been learning English in school, but still experienced a language barrier.

During their visit students taught some Japanese culture and traditions. They demonstrated Japanese cooking, dance, origami, calligraphy, and games as well as performed a tea ceremony.

The Parry McCluer hosts were responsible for taking the students to classes and other school activities for a couple of days. Some evenings were set aside for the students to attend family dinners and to participate in other evening activities. They were allowed to visit the homes of their Parry McCluer hosts as often as possible. Southern Virginia College, which provided housing for the visitors, organized several sightseeing trips throughout the area.

Students were taught origami and calligraphy.

Flint Named Citizen of the Year

Roger Groot presents Wayne Flint with the "Citizen of the Year" plaque.

Wayne Flint was named citizen of the year by the Buena Vista Lion's Club. When Flint's selection was announced he was described as a person deeply committed to the best possible education for each student.

Flint has been the principal of Parry McCluer High School since 1976 and he is credited with helping implement such programs as the college dual enrollment program and block scheduling.

Among his accomplishments as an educator was being named the Jaycees Outstanding Young Educator in 1974-75. During his tenure as principal of PMHS the school received the VPI & SU Award for Educational Excellence in 1986.

Flint was a 1958 graduate of Parry McCluer High School and a 1963 graduate of Virginia Tech.

Students participate in discussion group which is a part of the cooperative learning employed in block scheduling.

SENIOR TRIP!!

This year, the Senior class took a trip to Washington, D.C. The trip was scheduled for May 4, 1995. About 31 Seniors plus 4 chaperons (Ms. Moritz, Mr. Rudisell, Mrs. Pryor, and Mr. Downs) loaded up the charter bus at 4:45 a.m. and pulled off at 5:00 a.m. After eating breakfast in Woodstock, VA, the bus broke down. The Seniors, Sponsors, and driver were stranded on the side of interstate for approximately 40 minutes. Finally, a "new" bus was sent. The sight of the bus was horrifying — an antique Quick's bus. Everyone survived and arrived in Washington, D.C. safely. The first stop was the Capital. Because of the late arrival, the meeting with Bob Goodlatte was cancelled. However, the Seniors visited Goodlatte's office. Next was the Supreme Court building, Union Station (for lunch and shopping), Smithsonian Institute, Washington Monument, Lincoln Memorial and the Vietnam War Memorial. On the way home, there was a stop at Fair Oaks Mall for dinner. After a long and tiring day the group headed home. Everyone had a wonderful time and it definitely was an experience that will never be forgotten.

Washington was privileged to be graced with the presence of this group from PMHS.

HOMECOMING 1994

The entire week of the 1994 Parry McCluer High School was a huge success. Spirit week consisted of Tie Day; Flannel Day; Camouflage Day; NFL Day/College and Hat Day; and Blue and white Day.

The halls were decorated by all classes with the Sophomore winning the hall competition as well as the parade float contest.

The game was a huge success with Parry McCluer defeating James River.

At halftime of the football game the Homecoming Court made their entrance onto the field. The Freshmen representatives were Lindsey Coleman and David Downs; Sophomores Clarissa Johnson and Jonathan Griffin; and Juniors Bridgett Barger and Chase Clark. The Senior Court consisted of Sarah Tomlinson and Brian Marlatt; Stacy Nowlin and Tim Hare; Misty Snider and Brock Roberts; and Queen Tracey Tomlin escorted by Kevin Pryor. The flower girl was Lauren Ashley Robinette and the ringbearer was Chase Brandon Coffey.

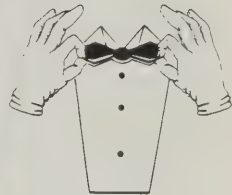

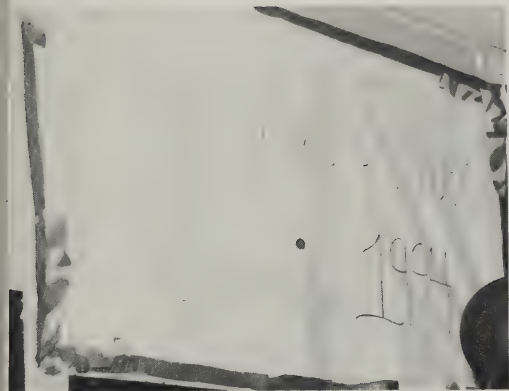

The Homecoming Dance was held on October 15, 1994, with the theme "Now and Forever" and the song "Endless Love." Everyone had a wonderful time. It really was a night that we all will remember.

From a little girl
To a young lady
You've made me so proud
And I love you more than you'll ever know!

"Congratulations", Tracey!

Love, Mom

Heather,
You have been a joy
and comfort to your Daddy and me, a ray of sunshine to brighten and give warmth to our days.

Your academic abilities are outstanding, but more so your compassion and giving of yourself to help others.

Numbers 6:24-26

Love, Mama

It doesn't seem so long ago your head rested on my shoulder and I held your little hand in mine. It doesn't seem so long ago you were all dressed up for your first day of school, and we smiled with pride. Then you showed us how you'd grown and we realized you weren't a child anymore. Good Luck little one and may all your dreams come true.

We Love You,
Mom and Dad

Congratulations
Amy!

We're so proud of you.

Remember, you can achieve anything your heart desires. The possibilities are unlimited.

Love you bunches!
Dad, Mom &
Jason

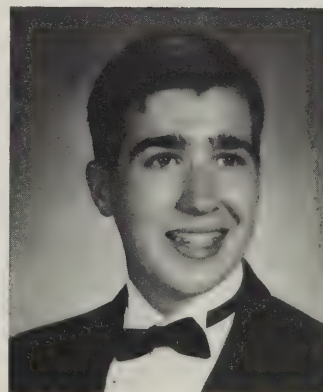

Brandon,
Congratulations! We're proud of you and all your accomplishments. Always walk with your head high. Remember all things are possible with faith and hard work. You are a special kid and We love you.

Dad, Mom, Kim, Corky,
Kirk, Shannon, and Jermy

Aaron,
To look at you then and look at you now, we always knew you would succeed in anything you should do. As your future lies ahead, your strengths, compassion and hard work have paid off. We have confidence in you and your many abilities to make your life successful and rewarding as you hold your key to many rewards. We thank you Aaron, for your love and understanding! From the depths of our hearts we wish you much success and happiness!

Love,
Mom, Steve & Brett

Senior Last Will & Testament

I, Scott Anderson, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the thought of me to all of my friends who will miss me.

I, Matt Barger, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my football position at a "strong" defensive back to a great and well deserved "Jerry" Miller.

I, Emily Burch, Being of sound mind and body do hereby leave MATURITY, (although people think they have enough already) to everybody at P.M.H.S.

I, Joy Cales, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave a Toyota truck so that he can go as many places as his brother has to Jeremiah Brockenborough.

I, Carrie M. Campbell, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my absence to all those who must endure another year here. Good Luck!!

I, Heather N. Cash, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave all of my grades to Songmi Cash, so she never has to worry.

I, Laura Cash, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my many college acceptances to G.C. so that if he doesn't receive any, I will spare him one of mine.

I, Lorrie Chittum, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave all of my belongings, worldly goods, and redneck ways to Rachael Bibbo.

I, Kara Coffey, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave Danielle Coffey all her ex-boyfriends that I have taken away.

I, Whitney Decker, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my position on the track team to Margaret Lineberry in hopes that she will be as good as I was.

I, Amy Griffin, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave all the girls of Parry McCluer (in hopes that he never chooses one!!) to my brother Jonathan Griffin.

I, Timothy M. Hare, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my warped sense of humor to my brother, David. Use it wisely as I have done, my son.

I, Jamie Hartless, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave enough guts to wear that outlandish pirate suit in front of thousands of people to anyone who wants such intestinal fortitude!

I, Kristin Keiser, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my college government book, and a piece of carpet in the bottom of my locker to a rising Senior that is worthy.

I, Aaron Lambert, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my beautiful, illegible, yet unique handwriting and strategically located, easy to use Senior parking space on 24th Street to any rising Junior male who proves himself worthy of such a momentous honor by reading Dostoyevsky's The Idiot.

I, Chasity M. Lunsford, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my eating habits, my good grades, and my cool parking spot to Crystal Gail Clark.

Seniors

Senior Last Will & Testament

I, Shonna Lynn, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my ability to tolerate the people of Parry McCluer High School to Nikki C.

I, Cersha Marshburn, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave a bump on the road to Monica Campbell.

I, Misty McGuiffin, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave M.W. my address in hope of finding her boyfriend when she can't find him.

I, Stacy Nowlin, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave block scheduling, school lunches, and those corny assemblies to any rising Senior who thinks they could be as good as I.

I, Kevin S. Pryor, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave all of my neckwear to any rising underclassmen who feel as though they might be worthy enough to don such haberdashery on every subsequent Friday hereafter. May God have mercy on your souls!!

I, Brock Roberts, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my sense of humor and good looks to the 95-96 Seniors, who seem to need it.

I, Amy Slagle, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave an Empty Head to Monica Stinnett in hopes that someday she will get one.

I, Misty Snider, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave all of my captain responsibilities to Robin Floyd in hopes that she will do better than I. Love ya Robin!!

I, Nicole S. Southers, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave the Herff Jones representative with his bad hand writing, and unusual ring sizes to any rising Sophomore who is willing to deal with him. Good Luck!!

I, Hollie Staton, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my tolerance of LIARS to anyone who may be lied about in the years to come!!

I, Elizabeth Stewart, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my Mama Shelb to no one.

I, Jaime Sylvester, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my ability to drag myself out of bed Monday mornings after pulling an "all-weekender" to Stacy Smith. I leave my geometry book to anyone who can understand it.

I, Tracey D. Tomlin, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my chewing gum addiction to anyone with strong jaws and enough money to pay for two packs a day.

I, Sarah Beth Tomlinson, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my "great" ability to cheer to anybody who wants to be like me.

I, Jamie White, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave a fat sack to Stephan Tomlin.

I, Sarah Williams, being of sound mind and body do hereby leave my ability to sleep through anything to anyone who is worthy.
